THE ARAB'S GIFT .- A poor Arab was traveling in the desert, when he met with a

The poor man traveled a considerable distance before he reached the presence of his sovereign, and laid his humble at his feet.

The caliph did not dispise the little gift brought to him with so much trouble. He ordered some of the water to be poured into a cup, drank it, and thanking the Arab with a smile, to taste of the wonderful water, but to the surprise of all, the caliph forbade them to

MANY A SLIP TWIXT THE CUP AND THE

LIP.—This well known saving was supposed to take its origin from one of Penelope's wooer's being shot as he was going to drink. But it arose, as an old author has it thus: "A king of Thrace had planted a vineyard, when one of his slaves, whom he had much oppressed in that very work, prophesied that he (the king) should never taste the wine produced by it.

The king disregarded the prophecy, and when, at an entertainment, he held the cup full of his own wine, he sent for his slave, and asked him, insultingly, what he thought of his prophecy now? The slave only answered, 'There's many a slip between the cup and the lip.'

Scarcely had he spoken, when news was brought that a large bear was laying his vinevard waste. The king arose in a fury, attacked the bear, and was killed without ever Peabody, the American Banker.

Peabody, the American banker in London, has just consummated his munificent gift of under adverse circumstances. He was born in 1795, at Danvers, Mass. His parents were poor, and what education he got in early life, was obtained at the district school in the neighborhood of his home. At the age of 11.

he became clerk for a grocer, and remained clerk with his brother. Afterward he went with an uncle to Georgetown, D. C. There he attracted the attention of a capitalist named Riggs furnishing the money and Peabody the brains. The house was removed to Baltimore, and prospered so well that branches were established in New York and Philadelphia. In 1827 he went to England to buy goods, and there formed many acquaintances with its leading merchants and politicians.

He took up his permanent residence in England in 1837, and severed his connection with the house of Peabody, Riggs & Co. in 1839. He rendered important service in preventing the complete prostration of American securities, and particularly those of Maryland, in London, in 1837, but refused all compensation for what he did. While he has lived in England, his establishment has been a headquarters for Americans, whom he has always welcomed with a generous hospitality. The princely gift he has just made to the destitute of London, is not the first evidence of his public-spirited generosity.

In 1852, he sent a toast to a semi-centennial festival at his native town, Danvers, which was to be opened at the table. It was,

"Education, a debt to future generations,"- and to pay his share of the debt, he enclosed $20,000, to be expended in establishing an institute, library, and lyceum for the town.

The sum has since been increased to $60,000.

In addition to the pay as above stated, one ration per day and an abunaant supply of good clothing is allowed to every soldier. Quarters, fuel and medical attendance are always provided by the Government without deduction from the soldier's pay. If a soldier should become disabled in the line of his duties, the law provides for him a pension, or he may, if he prefer it, obtain admission into the Military Asylum, which will afford him a comfortable home so long as he may wish to receive its benefits. To the above pay for private soldiers must be added the additional $2 a month to be paid during service, the $100 bounty at the end of the war, which has already been provided for, and the quarter section of land that Congress will provide for at its coming session. The bounty and land apply to officers and privates alike.

Worthy of Merit.

Among the many remedies offered to the public under be head of Patent Medicines, it is a relief to know that some of them are valuable preparations—will do what is claimed for them—and are worthy of use and a place in every family. Belonging to this class may be mentioned Dr Roback's Scandinavian Remedies—Blood Purifier and Blood Pills—which are most excellent preparations, and have the desired effect in all cases for which their use is intended. Like thousands of others, we bear pers witness to this, having used them in our family with the best effects. We are also acquainted with many who speak voluntarily in praise of these medicines, One of our leading business men says that by the use of only four bottles of Purifier he received more than one hundred dollars worth of benefit. His difficulty was Dyspepsia. We express our thanks for a liberal present of these remedies for use in our family. For sale in Marion County by W. B. Vickers, Indianapolis, Robt.
